IN RE:

DUSTIN W. ZICKEFOOSE
Assessor,
Upshur County, West Virginia

Pre-Complaint Conciliation Agreement

The West Virginia Ethics Commission and Dustin W. Zickefoose freely and voluntarily enter into the following Conciliation Agreement pursuant to W. Va. Code § 6B-2-4(t) to resolve all potential charges arising from allegations of violations of the West Virginia Governmental Ethics Act ("Ethics Act") discussed below.

Findings of Fact

1. Dustin W. Zickefoose has served as the elected Assessor of Upshur County since January 1, 2017.
2. As the Assessor of Upshur County, Zickefoose was, at all times relevant herein, a "public official" as defined in the Ethics Act, at W. Va. Code § 6B-1-3(k).
3. The Ethics Commission has jurisdiction over alleged violations of the Ethics Act committed by West Virginia public officials, such as Zickefoose. W. Va. Code §§ 6B-1-1 through 6B-3-11.
4. Prior to becoming the elected Assessor and at all times relevant herein, Zickefoose was licensed by the West Virginia Real Estate Commission as a real estate salesperson. In April 2018, after being contacted by Ethics Commission staff to discuss whether he could be a real estate agent in the county where he serves as the Assessor, Zickefoose voluntarily requested that the West Virginia Real Estate Commission place his real estate salesperson license in inactive status. Zickefoose states that he will not be a real estate salesperson while he is the elected Assessor.

5. At all times relevant herein, Zickefoose conducted his real estate agent business through Upshur Agency Inc. and its subsidiary, Century 21 Country Roads Realty, as a contract employee.

6. After becoming the Assessor, Zickefoose served as the real estate agent for four real estate transactions in Upshur County. An overview of the properties and his role in the transaction follows:

a) 92 Evergreen Estates –Zickefoose was the Listing Agent. He listed the property prior to becoming the Assessor and the sale closed in 2017.

b) 123 South Kanawha Street –Zickefoose was the Listing Agent. He listed the property prior to becoming Assessor and the sale closed in 2017.

c) 91 Professional Arts Plaza –Zickefoose was the Listing Agent. He listed the property after becoming Assessor and the sale closed in 2018.

d) 52 Phillips Dairy Road –Zickefoose was the Buyer’s Agent. He became the Buyer’s Agent after becoming the Assessor and the sale closed in 2017. Zickefoose started working with this client on various matters prior to becoming the Assessor.

7. In Advisory Opinion 2011-14, the Ethics Commission held that a candidate for county assessor, if elected, “may not continue his career as the owner and broker of a real estate business within the county where he serves.”

8. Zickefoose states that when he became the elected Assessor, he was unaware that the Ethics Act prohibits him from conducting business as a real estate salesperson/agent in Upshur County. Zickefoose acknowledges that ignorance of the law is not a defense but asserts that he would not have knowingly engaged in this business in Upshur County had he known that it violated the Ethics Act.

9. Zickefoose is a Certified Appraiser; however, in accordance with advice from Ethics Commission staff that he received prior to being elected, Zickefoose does not appraise properties located in Upshur County or properties located outside of Upshur County that are owned by people or businesses that also own real or personal property in Upshur County.

10. Zickefoose does, however, conduct his appraisal business as an independent contractor through Upshur Agency Inc., a business located in Upshur County.

11. Zickefoose has fully cooperated with Ethics Commission staff.

Relevant Legal Provision

W. Va. Code § 6B-2-5(h) states, in relevant part:
