WHEREUPON, Chairperson Wolfe called upon Ms. Stepto to give a recap of the previous month.

Ms. Stepto reported on a listing of the status of Complaints which have been initiated by the Commission since it was given the authority to do so in 2005. Most of the unresolved Complaints are either scheduled for hearing or settlement is being discussed. During calendar year 2014, 14 Complaints were initiated by the Commission, but nine of those were relating to one case. Commissioner Greer questioned staff as to whether Commission members are permitted to know the reason(s) the Probable Cause Review Board dismisses a Commission-Initiated Complaint. Ms. Weber will research applicable confidentiality provisions.

Ms. Stepto reported that the Commission’s staff met on May 5 with the Library Commission to discuss filming a new lobbyist training video. The Ethics Commission is required to provide training to lobbyists once every two-year registration cycle.

A report was given by Ms. Stepto regarding interim Legislative meetings. She reported that the House Judiciary Committee has included a study topic entitled "Ethics/Integrity reform legislation." Ms. Stepto plans to attend interim meetings, which are scheduled for: June 7-8; September 13-14; October 18-19; November 15-16. Once agendas are available, they will be circulated to Commission members.
Ms. Stepto reported that the Probable Cause Review Board issued five more Probable Cause Orders, which required staff to issue Statements of Charges and Notices of Hearing within 10 days. Three of the hearings were scheduled in the Union Public Service District cases. Some of those Respondents have since agreed to settlements, which will be discussed later in today’s meeting. Ms. Stepto reported that Statements of Charges were issued and public hearings were scheduled in two cases against members of the Piedmont, West Virginia, City Council who voted to expend $10,000 in city funds to pay for an attorney to defend its Town Foreman against criminal charges. After those two Statements of Charges were issued, staff learned that one Respondent is a candidate for re-election in a city election to be held on May 11. A stay of proceedings was immediately instituted in that case. The hearing on the other complaint is scheduled for July 23.

WHEREUPON, Chairperson Wolfe requested that the agenda order be changed to discuss Advisory Opinions before Complaints. The Commission concurred.

WHEREUPON, Chairperson Wolfe called upon Mr. Visnic to present Advisory Opinion 2015-06 for consideration.

WHEREUPON, Mr. Visnic presented Advisory Opinion 2015-06 to the Commission for consideration. After discussion, a motion was made by Commissioner Greer to approve the draft Opinion, and Commissioner Singleton seconded. The motion passed, with Commissioner Tweel opposed.

WHEREUPON, Chairperson Wolfe called upon Ms. Weber to present Advisory Opinion 2015-07 for consideration.

WHEREUPON, Ms. Weber presented Advisory Opinion 2015-07 to the Commission for consideration. A motion was made and seconded for approval of the draft Opinion. The motion failed for lack of a majority vote, with 4 against and 3 in favor. Commission members suggested new language for this Advisory Opinion, and Ms. Weber reported she will draft new language for discussion later in today’s meeting.

WHEREUPON, Chairperson Wolfe called upon Ms. Weber to present Advisory Opinion 2015-08 for consideration.

WHEREUPON, the Commission reviewed purchases on the P-Card monthly report. A motion was made by Commissioner Tweel, and seconded by Commissioner Singleton, that the report be accepted. The motion carried.

Ms. Stepto reported that the Commission’s new paralegal, Emily West, began working on April 20, 2015. Ms. West was introduced to the Commission members.

Ms. Stepto reported that at the May meeting of the Ethics Commission, the Commission voted to propose emergency and regular Legislative rules to accompany the new trinkets statute, which was House Bill 2457. The statute will be part of the Ethics Act and goes into effect on May 28, 2015. The Bill states that the Ethics Commission “may propose rules and emergency rules for legislative approval in accordance with the provisions [of the Administrative Procedures Act] to effectuate this section by July 1” even though the bill goes into effect on May 28. She reported that Mr. Visnic drafted proposed rules and staff received input from some of the Commissioners and from the Cabinet Secretary’s Office. Mr. Visnic also did a Memorandum to the Commissioners which discusses the latest version and why staff chose not to put in certain provisions or explanations that had been suggested. Today the Commissioners are being asked to approve these proposed rules to be submitted to the Cabinet Secretary for his approval. After approval is obtained, Mr. Visnic and Ms. Stepto will go through all the detailed procedures and requirements of the Secretary of State’s Office for making this an emergency rule and a regular Legislative rule. Ms. Stepto reported that this morning, she received by email a county policy from a county office; and after review, she and Mr. Visnic thought that the proposed rules and the statute address what is covered by the trinkets bill and what is not. Chairperson Wolfe questioned whether the Legislative Rule, once it goes into effect, supersedes all county policies. Ms. Stepto advised that the Legislative Rule will supersede county policies, but that county policies can be more restrictive. Discussion ensued on proposed changes to Section 4.2 of the proposed rules. Commissioner Disibbio made a motion for approval of the proposed Legislative Rule, with the amendment to 4.2 to strike out “including presidents and coaches” and to insert “development” so that 4.2 now reads: “This section does not prohibit communications released by college and university staff for marketing, development, recruiting or other advertising purposes.” Commissioner Tweel gave a second, and the motion carried.

Ms. Stepto requested that the Commission consider establishing a Legislative Committee to work with her to monitor and provide input on the ethics reform legislation during the upcoming interim Legislative meetings. She reported that Commissioner Ireland has already requested to be on the Committee. Commissioners Buckalew, Greer, and Tweel were also requested or volunteered to be on the Committee.

Chairperson Wolfe noted for clarification that the role of the Legislative Committee will be to simply monitor and will not be proactive to represent the Commission to the Legislature or to lobby or any kind of those activities on behalf of the Commission.
