Re: John Ailes
Registration Number: 535

We have performed the procedures, which you agreed to, solely to assist you in compliance with W.Va. Code § 6B-3-11 and W.Va. C.S.R. § 158-15-1 et seq. for the reporting period beginning January 1, 2021 and ending December 31, 2021. Each lobbyist is responsible for all documents submitted to the West Virginia Ethics Commission. Our procedures included the inspection of John Ailes' West Virginia Ethics Commission Lobbyist Activity Reports filed for the above period. We requested documentation supporting all expenditures during the period and tested the documentation provided to the extent we considered necessary to determine that amounts reported were correct with respect to amount, nature, and classification on the expenditure report. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with the attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the provisions of West Virginia Ethics Commission Legislative Rule, Section 158-15-1 et seq. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of the West Virginia Ethics Commission. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of those procedures described above either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

Based on our procedures described above, all the reports submitted by John Ailes to the West Virginia Ethics Commission for the period specified were found to be accurate and properly documented.

We were not engaged to and did not conduct a comprehensive investigation of the lobbyist activities for the period, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the above-described reports. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the West Virginia Ethics Commission, and the lobbyist. It is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Our procedures included the inspection of Nathan Morris' West Virginia Ethics Commission Lobbyist Activity Reports filed for the above period. We requested documentation supporting all expenditures during the period and tested the documentation provided to the extent we considered necessary to determine that amounts reported were correct with respect to amount, nature, and classification on the expenditure report. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with the attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the provisions of West Virginia Ethics Commission Legislative Rule, Section 158-15-1 et seq. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of the West Virginia Ethics Commission. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of those procedures described above either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

Based on our procedures described above, all the reports submitted by Nathan Morris to the West Virginia Ethics Commission for the period specified were found to be accurate and properly documented.

We were not engaged to and did not conduct a comprehensive investigation of the lobbyist activities for the period, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the above-described reports. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the West Virginia Ethics Commission, and the lobbyist. It is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
