Information regarding the ALJ Code of Conduct Complaint process

- The Ethics Commission Committee on the Standards of Conduct of Administrative Law Judges (ALJ Committee) will send a letter to the person who filed an ALJ Code of Conduct Complaint which confirms that it has been received.
- The Complaint initially will be either dismissed or investigated by the ALJ Committee.
 - If it is dismissed, the person against whom the Complaint was filed will receive a copy of the Complaint and the Dismissal Order. The person who filed the Complaint will receive a copy of the Dismissal Order.
 - If the Complaint is to be investigated, a Notice of Investigation will be sent to the person who filed the Complaint and the person against whom the Complaint was filed.
- The Ethics Commission and the ALJ Committee do not have the authority or jurisdiction to enforce the Code of Judicial Conduct promulgated by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. Code of Judicial Conduct. Therefore, Complaints which allege violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct or are filed against individuals subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct – and not the ALJ Code of Conduct – will be dismissed.
